

“Interdependence”

is a Fall and Winter Nature art exhibition on display at the Regional Learning Alliance (RLA), located at 850 Cranberry Woods Drive, Cranberry Township, Pennsylvania. The exhibit opened on Monday, November 11, and runs through February 7, 2025. It features 82 original botanical and wildlife pieces created by 14 artists from the 3 Rivers Botanical and Nature Artists, a nonprofit group. These pieces also may be purchased.

The exhibition highlights nature's interdependence including birds and mammals that rely on fall and winter plants for food such as seeds, nuts, berries, cones, fall fruits, grasses, grains, and mushrooms/fungi. Some pieces also depict hibernation habitats, food sources, and plants that enrich soil nutrients through decomposition.

The RLA gallery is located in the second-floor Atrium common area and is open to the public Monday through Thursday from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. and Friday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Admission is free. For more information, visit our website at www.theRLA.org.
